To whom it may concern:

China Chamber of Commerce in U.S.A (CCC) is a non-profitable organization which established in New York on January 24, 1996, supported by formerly Ministry of Foreign Trade and Economic Cooperation in China, Department of Commerce in U.S.A, and National Council for US-China Trade. The China Chamber of Commerce in U.S.A is one of the largest oversea organizations and most influential organizations in U.S.A

We would like to recommend Dynasty Resources to companies and organizations that promote the trade and business between the US and China. China Chamber of Commerce and its members have benefited from the consultancy service of Dynasty Resources, Inc. Over the years, Dynasty Resources effectively contributed cross-culture consultancy service to US and Chinese companies by providing company and market research, market entry strategy, event planning and coordination, matching making with high level business contacts, and after event follow up services. Dynasty Resources also supported many trade events hosted by CCC including US-China economic forums and import-export business conferences.

The members of China Chamber of Commerce cover industries including electronics, machinery, oil and gas, hardware, mining, food products, apparel & shoes, toys and craftwork, in both public and private sectors. The complete business chains formed including manufacture, import & export, wholesales, finance, insurance, transportation, storage, advertisement, exhibition and consultation.
